

NDIS Access and Fee Transparency Statement

The Sensory Play Clinic is a private provider and not directly registered with the NDIS. Families who self-manage or plan-manage their NDIS funds may use their budgets to access our services. All invoices include detailed descriptions of the service type, duration, and purpose in line with NDIS reporting standards.

We are committed to transparent pricing for assessments, sensory kits, and therapeutic resources. Our goal is to provide accessible, evidence-informed support that empowers families and aligns with their funding goals.
